Customer Reviews

Health have been my #1 priority.. I've tried many different diets out there but something about the blog group diet really caught my eye. I thought this felt more natural and more inline with who i am. The read that stood out to me was how I can make smarter food choices based on specific blood type, this was definitely something new to me, and I feel like this is the path that I should be taking to becoming a stronger and healthier me. I believe that if I can do it, so can you!

Just a short review. I was hoping for specific food lists. I gave it a 5 because the concept is so believable. After initiation I hope to get good results.

Great book I should have found it years ago!

Disappointed.
