The Arthritis Cure For Pets

Synopsis

This breakthrough book shows how osteoarthritis in dogs and cats can be cured by a program using nutritional supplements found in health-food stores. The Arthritis Cure for Pets describes a potent and effective combination of nutritional supplements that can halt or reverse arthritis and even cure the pain of arthritis sufferers. Now, veterinarian Brian Beale and coauthor Brenda Adderly show pet owners that arthritis need not ruin the lives of their animal companions. This is the painless, low-cost, natural cure that countless pet owners have been waiting for.

Customer Reviews

Very informative book. Covers everything from explaining Arthritis, how it develops, how to recognize the signs and various step to help your pet. I learned so much from this book. It explains how exercise and diet can greatly help your pet and what to look for in commercial pet foods. The book also explores the supplements that can promote healthy joints and what pain medicine is available for your pet. Everything in the book is relatively easy and inexpensive and will give your pet a better quality of life.

Really, the information that the authors are so keen to pass on to their audience could have been reduced to no more than 5 pages, easy, in my opinion. Rest is just waffle. Nevertheless, a good book to read if you have a dog that suffers from athritis

I have a 20 year old cat who just recently started jogging slower for his nightly jogs (yes, he jogs every night on a leash). Not wanting to go the script meds route, I looked into this book for help. The information is spot on for natural help with Arthritis. Glucosamine (Desiquin) for cats and an altered diet help almost immediately. We are jogging at top speed more and more now! NOTE** He also uses a heating pad during the Winter for achy joints and sleep soundly...

I ordered this book to help me with my dog Foxy. Foxy has since died. The book has been added to my library.

Thank you for your prompt service. Your communication every step of the way was greatly appreciated.
